A Theme that Speaks for Itself

The yearbook theme statement, "A Shade Above the Rest," explains Vanleave — the students, the school, and the community. The student body exhibits a school spirit that continues to soar at a time when school spirit at other schools appears to be on the decline. The students are proud of their athletic teams, band, club members, scholars, and individuals who represent the school and come out on top in many contests.

To help convey this spirit and pride, the cover design includes a "V" shape. This logo and variations of the "V" continue to appear throughout the book.

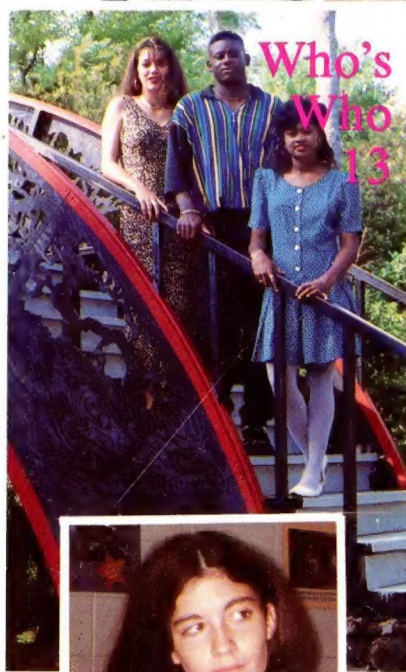

In addition to a lot of spirit, Vanleave also has a lot of new students. The student enrollment this year is a shade higher than it was last year, bringing the total to about 700. The class enrollments continue to climb as people begin to notice that Vanleave is a friendly, tranquil and shady dot on the map. As newcomers arrive, they add to the shadings of the people and places which have created Vanleave.

The word shade was selected because of the massive oaks, the beautiful magnolias and dogwoods, and the pecan groves which provide an abundance of shade for our schools, homes, and businesses. Therefore, as a student body, as well as a community, Vanleave has grown to be "A Shade Above the Rest."

And above all, this year's annual staff presents to you a Time 'n' Tide that is "A Shade Above the Rest."

 Some people break bones; Rebekah Wise draws 'em.
Grant McMillan takes a week off from football while his ankle heals.

Mr. VHS
Derek Whitney

Miss VHS
Hollie Henley

Derek Whitney is the 18-year-old son of Dave and Mary Whitney and Linda and Wayne Randolph. He has attended Vancleave schools for nine years. Among his honors have been 7th Grade Favorite, 9th Grade Fashionable Freshman, 10th Grade Favorite and, 11th Grade Overall Beau. He has been a class officer in his 7th, 8th, and 12th Grade years, and has been named twice to Who's Who Among American High School Students. His athletic achievements include two-year letterman in both football and baseball, and one-year letterman in cross-country. Derek was also selected Most Outstanding Defensive Back as a sophomore. His hobbies are hunting and fishing. After graduation, he plans to attend college and major in medicine.

Hollie Amanda Henley is the 18-year-old daughter of Stella and Jay Henley. She is a member of the Vancleave Church of Christ. She has attended the Vancleave schools for 12 years and is an Honor Roll student. Hollie is currently serving as Editor of the Annual Staff, President of National Honor Society, Student Council Representative, and the Mississippi Student Advisory Board. She is a member of Teen Connection, Drama Club, Young Republicans, and F.C.S.A. She has been listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students in 1991 and 1993. For the past two years Hollie was voted Friendliest in the VHS Who's Who.

As a Junior, Hollie served as Student Council President, Latin Club VP., and attended Girls State and Presidential Classroom in Wash., D.C. As a Sophomore, Hollie received the Hugh O'Brian Leadership Award. She was Student Council VP, and a member of the Annual Staff. As a Freshman, she was Class VP, and a Student Council Representative. She attended the Mississippi Leadership Seminar and was on staff at the Youth to Youth Conference.

Hollie enjoys gardening, painting, and scuba diving. Hollie's future plans are to attend the University of Mississippi and obtain a degree in Occupational Therapy.

Jackson County Junior Miss

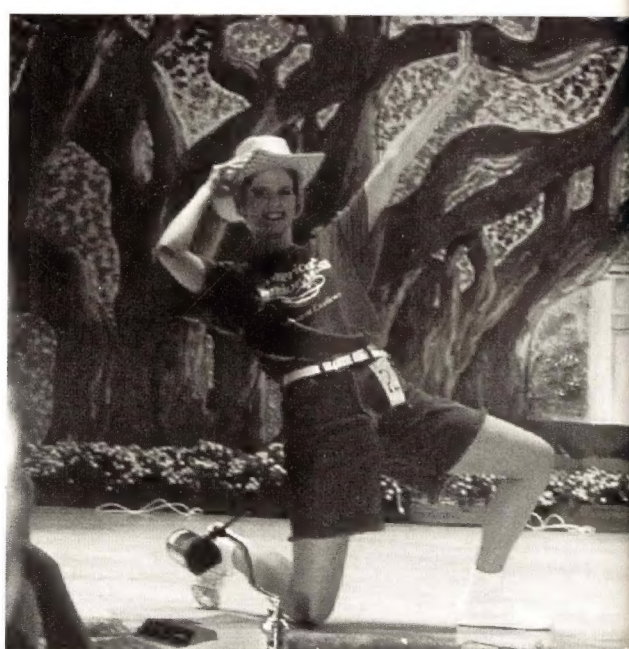

Marsha Harwell was crowned Jackson County Junior Miss on October 24, 1993. Marsha also won the Creative and Performing Arts Award for her piano rendition of "The Sabre Dance" and her vocal number, "That's Life."

There were 13 girls vying for the Jackson County Junior Miss title. The pageant was held at East Central High School.

(Top, R-L) Lucretia Wages and April Buchanan were the other two contestants from VHS in the Junior Miss Pageant. Lucretia delivers a monologue from The Scarlet Letter for the talent competition. April sings and performs to "Cabaret."

Cutest Couple
Samantha Cochran Brad Emerson

Charles E. (Petey) Overstreet is the 17-year-old son of Martha Overstreet and the grandson of Christine Overstreet and the Late John L. Overstreet. He has attended Vancleave schools for 12 years. He is a member of the Magnolia Baptist Church. Petey is a member of NHS. He is a 3 year letterman in football. He was named Offensive Lineman of the Year his sophomore and junior years. Also as a junior, he received honorable mention to the MS Press Top 10 Prep Athletes. In his senior year he was named to the Gulf Coast All Bay Team. After graduation Petey plans to attend college and pursue a career as a Nuclear Health Physicist.

Marsha Harwell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harwell. She is a member of the First Baptist Church of Vancleave. Having been a Student Council Representative for four years, Marsha currently holds the office of President. She served as Freshman Class President and Sophomore Class Secretary. During her Junior year, she attended Girls State and chaired the 1993 Prom. This year Marsha was crowned Jackson County's Junior Miss. She was accepted to tour on the 1994 World Tour with The Continental Singers. Marsha plans to attend college while seeking God's will and direction for her life.

A Shade of Honor

Lacey Harris, Jocelyn Smith, Amy Sentelle, Shannon Worley, Kathy Kapiotis, Ted Branham, and April Smith are all smiles as they listen for the next Who's Who winner to be announced.

Dan Whittle imitates the Star Trek character Jordi. The shades (visors) were the favors for the Who's Who winners. They also received certificates. The artwork on the front of the visors was done by J.D. Balzli.

Kelon Reddix gets ready to ask Katrina Howard to dance.

Brian Holifield and Alycia Kapiotis enjoy each other's company.

Amanda Howard shows Wesley Thomas how to do the Two-Step.

Ladd Flurry and Donya Alford sing along with the music as they dance.

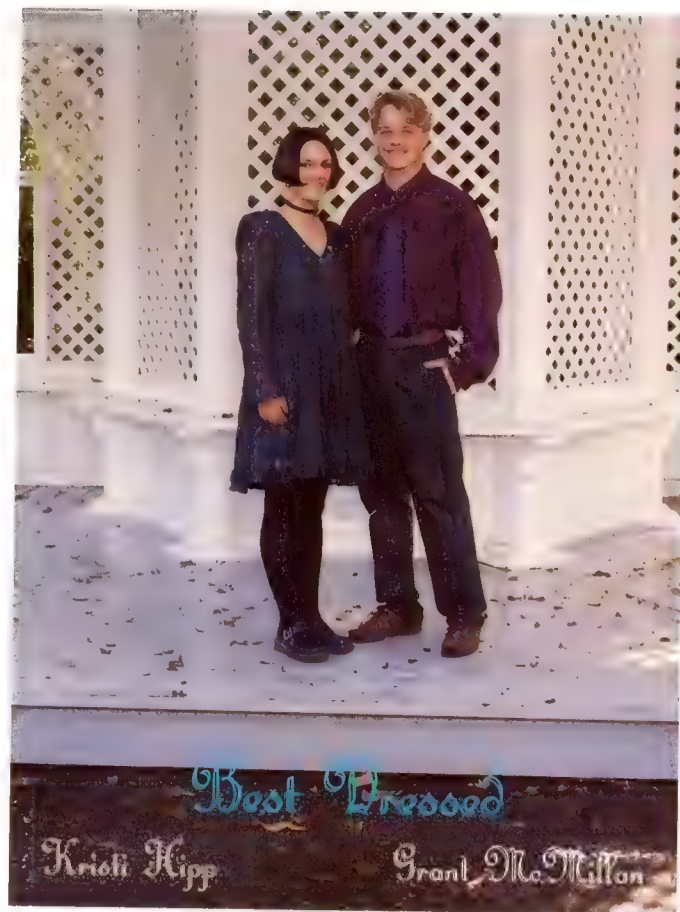

Xamondria Fairley and Tori Ferguson are looking for dance partners.

Ted Branham and Joey Wiley really know how to dance: they have a certain shade of rhythm!!

Chad Dees and Peaches Gerlach were one of the couples nominated for Cutest Couple.

Patrick Dees, James David, and Johnse LeBatard get a kick out of watching the dancers do Jump!

The Who's Who dance was held on Friday night, October 15, 1993, from 7 to 10 P.M. at the VHS cafetorium. The Annual Staff sponsors the dance to announce the winners selected by the votes of the student body.

Derek Whitney and Matthew Lott were the disc jockeys. The admission was $3 a person, which is used to help pay for the yearbooks and the Who's Who favors.

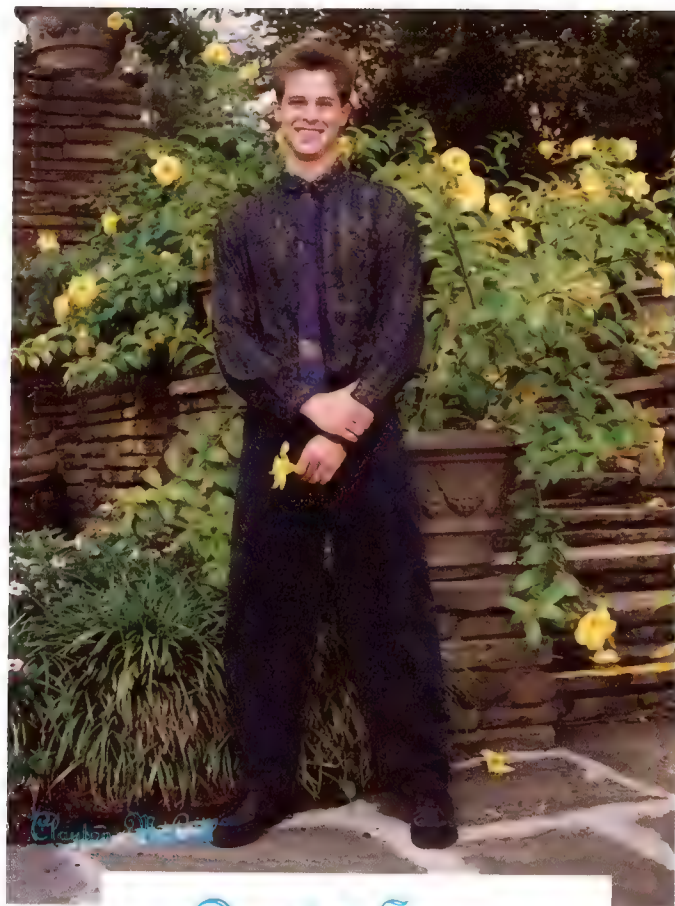

Gwen Thrash and Craig Sumter form their own means of communication. Ben Inabinette, Lindsey Mallette, Susan Stringfellow, April Waltman, Richard Jenkins, and Lee Johnson are well-known users of the "buddy system." Mark Stokes reaches for his wallet so that he and Jack Stokes can go get a coke. Robert McDonald can really Dance! Christa Spence takes a breather.

Shades of the South

To stay with the theme, the Annual Staff chose Bellingrath Gardens for the setting for Who's Who pictures. Bellingrath Gardens, located in Theodore, Alabama, is known world-wide for its year-round beauty. The magnificent home is also open to visitors.

Hank Tanner, Summer Davis, Judy Smith, and Grant McMillan find a cool, shady spot near the Rustic Bridge over Mirror Lake. Mrs. Coy Ann Mallett enjoys the Fowl River setting of the House and Gardens as she talks with annual staff members. The Bellingraths acquired the property for a private fishing lodge.

(Center) In the Delchamps-Boehm Gallery, Cyndi Mallette reads to Mandy Clancy, Cliffy Dees, Gwen Thrash, and Ryan Robinson about the large collection of Boehm's porcelain sculptures housed there. (Right) Hunter Henley, Ben Inabinette, Cyndi Mallette, Lee Johnson and Carlos Warren stay with the crowd so they won't get lost on the 65 acres.

Hollie Henley and Sarah Byrd love the Oriental American Garden area. Judy Smith takes in the beauty of the Formal Garden. Hank Tanner, Beth Montana, and Grant McMillan find a welcome breeze on the River Pavillion where "They're Swingin'." Lunch was at Wendy's on I-10 and the Theodore Exit. Valerie Besse and Suzanne King were glad to get served so quickly.

Maxcie Sikora and Hollie Henley show Kristi Hipp and Suzanne King the roses they bought at the Gift Shop. A tired group heads back to school. Samantha Cochran and Brad Emerson were only two of the many caught napping.

Cyndi Mallette is the 14-year-old daughter of Conrad and Jean Mallette. In her second year as a VMS cheerleader, she is presently the Captain of the squad. Last year she was voted 7th Grade Favorite. The past two years she has been on the VMS Homecoming Court, and this year she was elected Queen. Her hobbies are talking on the phone, listening to the radio, and playing basketball. Cyndi and Hunter both appreciate the support of their classmates.

Hunter Paul Henley is the 14-year-old son of Stella and Jay Henley. He is a member of the Vancleave Church of Christ. For the past 2 years Hunter has been a Student Council Representative, played football, and been an active member of Teen Connection and F.C.S.A. He was selected to attend an Officer's Leadership Training class in Jackson in conjunction with Teen Connection. Hunter was voted 7th Grade Favorite. His hobbies include hunting, scuba diving, baseball, and football.

Shades of Recognition

Who's Who in the News

J.D. Balzli makes the 4-H Awareness Team. At MS State U. he competed with 4-H'ers from across the State. The competition included an application, an interview, a group discussion, and 2 speeches. As a member of the MS 4-H Awareness Team, J.D. will make public appearances for 4-H.

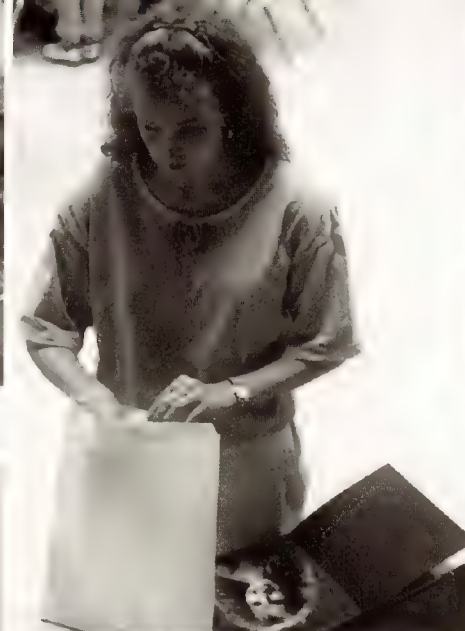

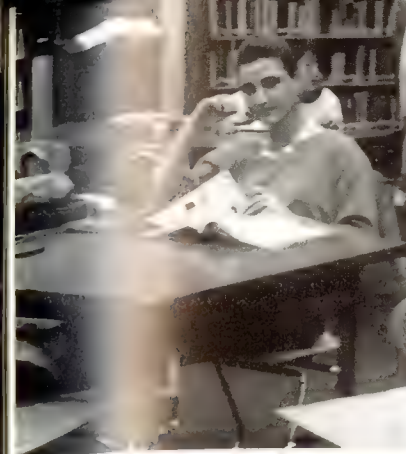

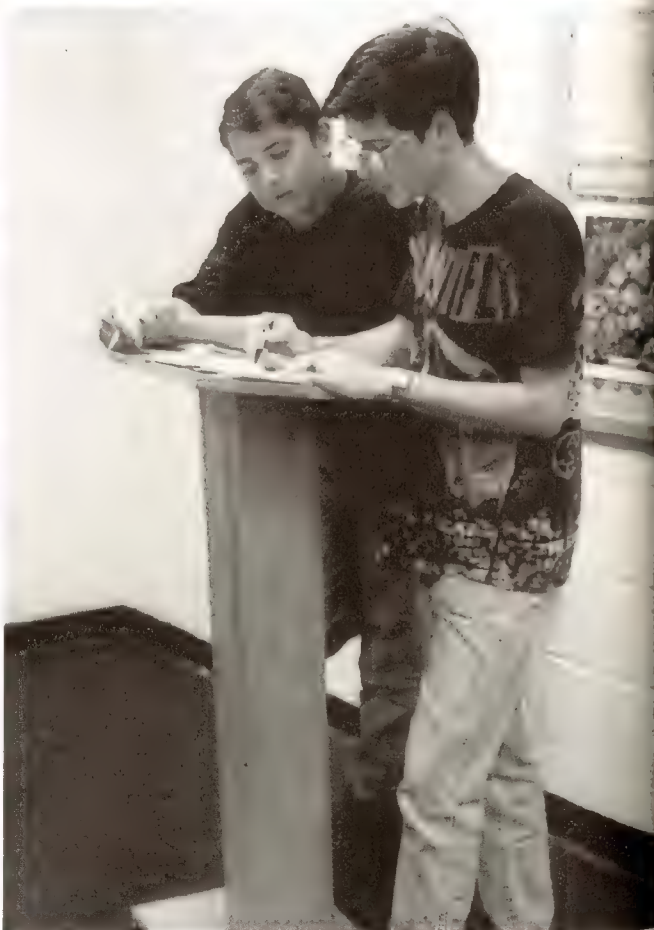

Chances are rare that a brother and sister would both be Mr. & Miss of their schools at the same time. Hollie and Hunter Henley both share those titles this year: Hollie as Miss VHS and Hunter as Mr. VMS.

Erinn Carty and Rebekah Wise participate in PEP, the Pre-College Enrichment Program at MUW. Erinn and Rebekah earned college credit for the courses they took. Also, Erinn is a National Winner in the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards.

Angela Tillman is a National Merit Semi-Finalist on the PSAT. She and Sarah Byrd are both Honor Roll Students. Eddy Andrews tells Josh Ridgell about his exciting week in Wash., D. C., attending the National Young leaders Conference. He was excited about being a "Supreme Court Chief Justice" in a mock trial. He visited the Capitol, the Smithsonian, monuments, and met 3 of the MS Senators.

Shades From the Past

Gwen Thrash, Brandye Pierce, and Chad Thomas as 7th graders, attend their first Who's Who Dance. Laurie Levatino begins her school career at the age of six. What she enjoys most about school is being with her buddies.

Christie Nance graduates from Kindergarten in her first mortar board and tassel. Ryan Robinson and Hollie Henley can handle graduation! Erinn Carty adopts "Little Orphan Annie."

Charlene Blair has always loved animals. She holds her first puppy, "Pepper." Jay Gautreaux "Should've been a Cowboy."

Kristen Kapiotis is still "Just a Swingin'." Derek Whitney lets everyone know he watches MTV. That's big stuff to an 8th grader! Brad Emerson still has this same smile! Robert McDonald grabs a snack in between races on Elementary Field Day.

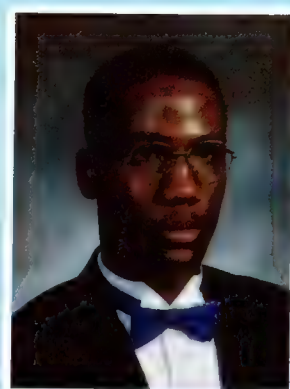

Vicki Savage couldn't wait to start Kindergarten. Velana Forehand knows the importance of graduation. She says that her most important event this year will be "walking across the stage and getting the ticket to life." Kenny Smith enjoys being at school. He says, "I can't wait to graduate this year, but I'll miss my friends." His talents are drawing and making people happy.

Keith Williams wants to go to college to play basketball or football. He'd rather be playing ball anytime than writing answers to questions.

For Amanda Lamey, getting her diploma at graduation is her most important event this year. Her off-campus activity is dying her hair.

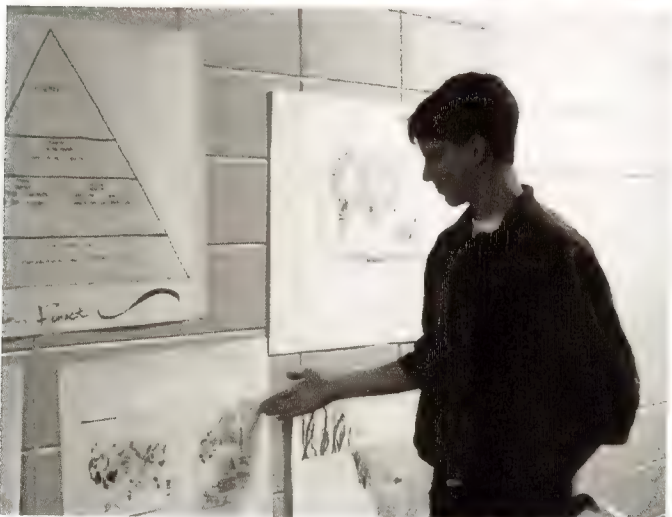

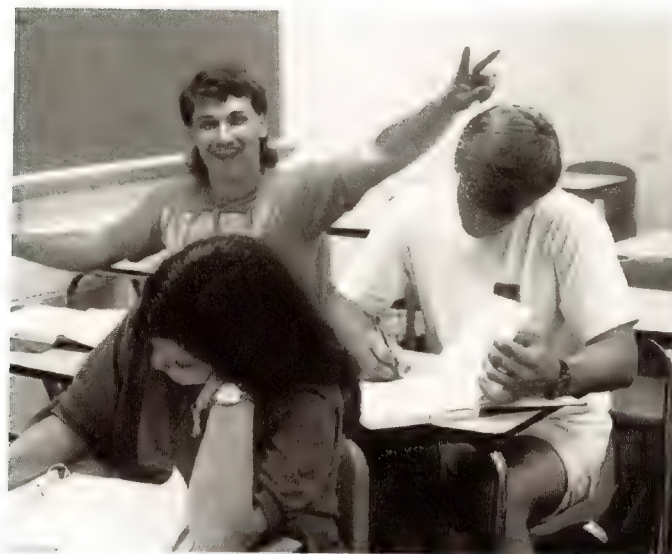

David Skelton likes to sit in the back of the class. He works quietly and steadily on his ecology questions. What he enjoys most about his classes is "getting through."

Mike Dobraske likes art class the best. Mike transferred to VHS in November.

... to the Present

Jennifer Simmons and Alicia Harlan enjoy going to dances so they can be with friends and do things together. Jennifer and Alicia try to explain to Grant McMillan how it is to be a Senior: "It's hard to be humble."

William Toche shows a shade of maturity.
Kristen Kapiotis has her senior year all bagged up!

Chad Dees is concerned about water pollution. His drawing shows what might have happened to Jack and Jill if the well had been polluted.

Wayne Holder tries always to leave a good impression. He wants to be remembered by his classmates as "sweet and cool," and by his teachers as a "hard worker."

Tina Hart and Brandye Pierce think graduation will be the ultimate recess.

Charlie King, Adrian Burge, Kevin Motes, Heather Frontiero, and Jennifer Girod are a unique and talented group. Their interests lie in art and music. Charlie has a small jazz band, Kevin is talented in drama and singing, and Heather plays the piano. Maybe they are headed for fame and fortune!

Missy Todd looks through magazines trying to find a picture that she would like to use as a model to draw and paint, adding her own creative touch.

Kenny Smith and Clayton McCall have it made in the shade. Clayton says he would like to leave "my intelligence to my brother, Caleb, and my extraordinary hang time and ability to break backboards to any freshman basketball players who might need the extra inches; my good looks are going with me." Keith Hamsley explains the chemistry lesson to his classmates. Keith would like to be remembered by his peers "as a fun, carefree person"; however, he'd like for his teachers to remember him "as a good student."

When asked how he wants to be remembered by his classmates and teachers, Kevin Motes replied, "As the Divine Emperor of the Universe."

When Amy Taylor thinks about her Senior Year, "Graduation and a good time" come to mind, but she thinks also about "having to say good-bye to some wonderful classmates."

Chris Fields enjoys ecology class. For him, getting a diploma will be his most important event this year.

Tressie Waltman watches a video in Co-Op. She is glad to be taking Co-Op, and she enjoys working and getting paid for it.

Shades of Expression

Look who's talking! One of Alicia Harlan's favorite sayings is "You're so funny!" Alicia hurries to finish her school lunch so she can go to work, — at McDonald's.

Woody Woodbury wants to be remembered by his classmates and teachers as "Cool." His most memorable event in high school was getting his head shaved in the 9th grade.

Sarah Byrd tells Derek Whitney about the book she plans to have published in 1995. It will be titled, Sarah's Book of Embarrassing Moments. Brad Emerson and his truck can be found on week-ends at the car wash on Hwy. 57.

Regina Bang is happy to get her Senior portraits. Now she can buy some frames and wrap them to give for Christmas gifts. Velana Forehand hopes that hers will come in soon. Katie Hassell loves the expressions of the "Loony Toons" characters. Her favorite song is "What's Up?" The saying that she uses most is, "Do you want to talk about it?"

April Buchanan expresses her true feelings about chemistry!
Mr. Breland is more than proud of his nephew, Stephen Breland, and the fact that he will graduate this year. And what does Stephen say he enjoys most about his classes? "Free time!"
Terril Buxton is a shade above Mr. Macho! He says, "I want to leave my nephew Richard Jr. with my pride and reputation so he can be hard just like me."
Christie Nance wants to be remembered by her classmates as "someone actually likeable."
Stuart Bynum shows mixed emotions about getting up in front of the class to present his current event.
Bonham Tillman can really express himself by dancing!
Jason Orr shows how much fun working on a homecoming float can be. He says his biggest decision this year is whether "to eat regular lunch or pizza."

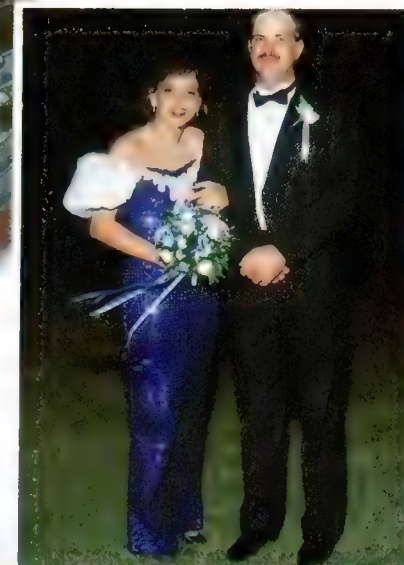

The Finishing Shades

Class Motto

There will be a time when you believe everything is finished. That will be the beginning.

This year's Senior Homecoming Maids are Brandye Pierce, Gwen Thrash, and Lucretia Wages.

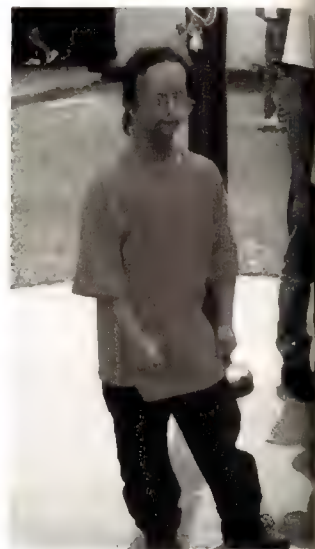

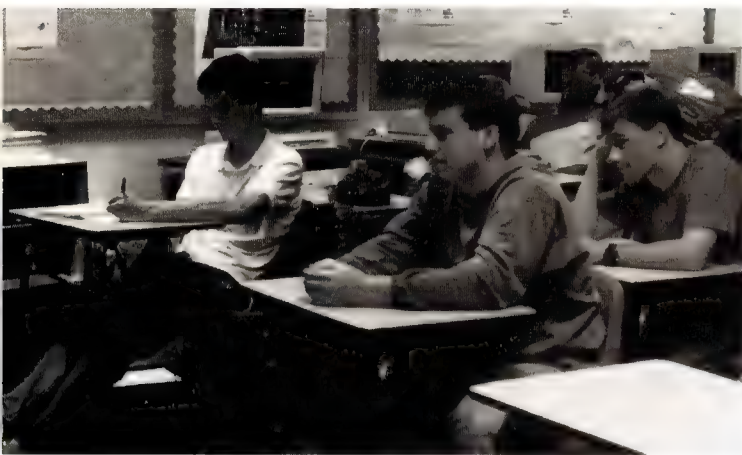

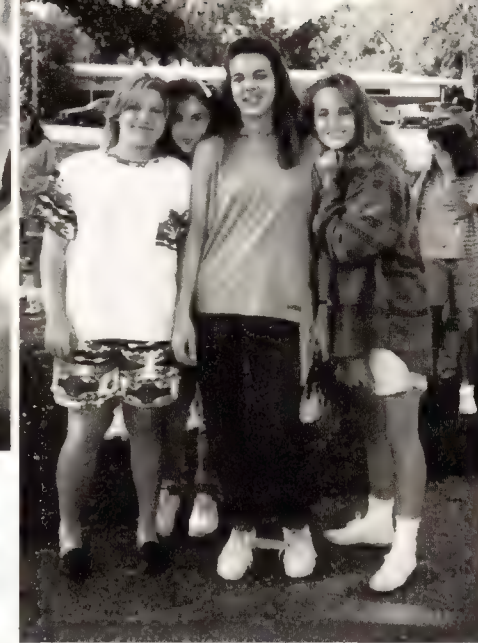

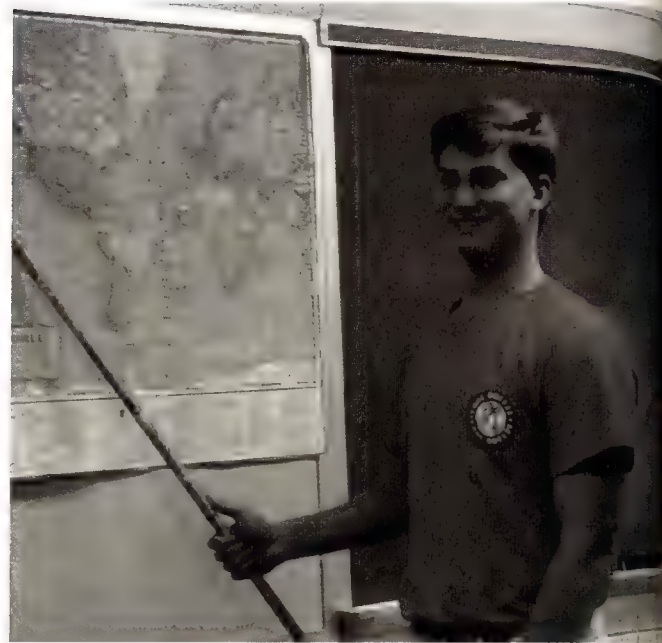

Flowers, Flowers, everywhere; And not a one to pick.
Senior Favorites Shane Smith and April Buchanan love the beauty of the plants and flowers at Bellingrath Gardens.

A Variety of Shades

A variety of responses came from the Seniors when they were asked, "In thinking about your Senior Year, what comes to mind?"

Charles Domingues plans "to head to Hawaii." Derek Whitney and Brandye Pierce stop filing long enough to answer, "Out with the Old and in with the New." Arlin Mallette thinks of "Partying and hanging out in Vancleave." Tommy Tootle's thoughts turn to playing drums and his last year in the VHS band. (Tommy also plays piano, and any other musical instrument.) And Chad Thomas says, "I hope I remember it all."

Sarah Byrd says she looks forward to, "tossing my cap at graduation." Scott Tanner wonders what he'll do after he graduates. Shelly Wiley responded, "Growing up, taking on more responsibility, and Freedom! I wonder if we can make it out there." Shelly and Heaven Clayton pick up their senior portraits from Jimmy Bruce of Southeastern Photography. The Seniors go to the studio in Biloxi in July and have their portraits made in formal and informal attire. This year they also posed in caps and gowns. For Marvin Barnes and Terril Buxton, it's, "Whoomp! There It Is!"

Different Shades of Learning

Coaches Parham, Lang, Shows, and Mr. Bawcum teach the motions to "YMCA" by the Village People.

Mrs. Osley has it made in the shade while she has duty during break and at lunch.

Mrs. Parker waits for her students to shade in the answers.

A shade of Christmas fills the air. Averaging grades is a shade faster for Mr. Brown with his adding machine. Mrs. Fleming shows a shade of humor in class.

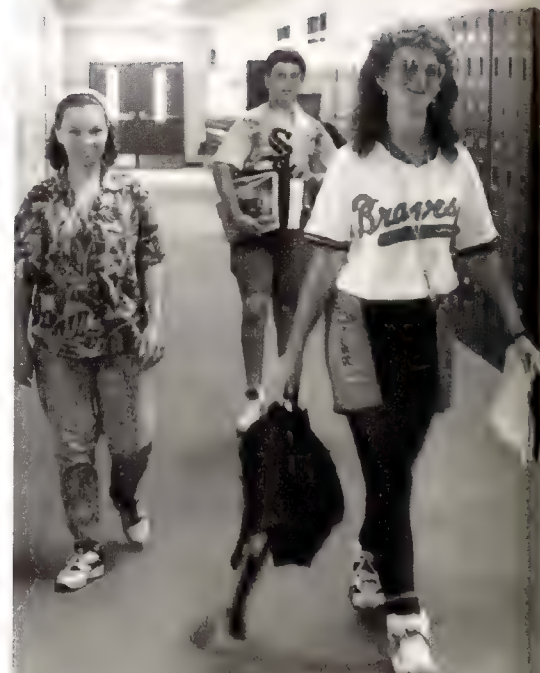

Mrs. Brower helps Allison with a psychology experiment. A shade of an inch closer to the line of throw means more confidence! Ms. Harrison's biology class heads for the shade to study. Mrs. Thigpen's shirt, "Stand and Fight" may be a shade true in teaching 8th graders.

Coach Rodolfich spurs the Offense a shade closer to a first down. Teachers enjoy a shade of fun at the Computer Club's Christmas program.

Annual Staff

The Annual Staff works all year in planning, fund-raising, attending workshops, etc., to produce a yearbook. A lot of time, energy, and love goes into every page to make each year's book unique.

Derek Whitney keeps Chad Thomas, who was on the staff last year, informed on the latest yearbook activities. The campers are overjoyed when all their hard work and wee hours amount to being one of the few groups to win a plaque.

Matthew Lott attends the special photography workshop at USM. Rebekah Wise is ready to wait on customers at the football concession stand. Selling ads to local businesses and organizations is one of the ways the annual staff raises funds that help pay for the yearbooks. Raina, Hollie, Maxcie, and Gwen love getting the Moo-licious ad!

Shades of Effort

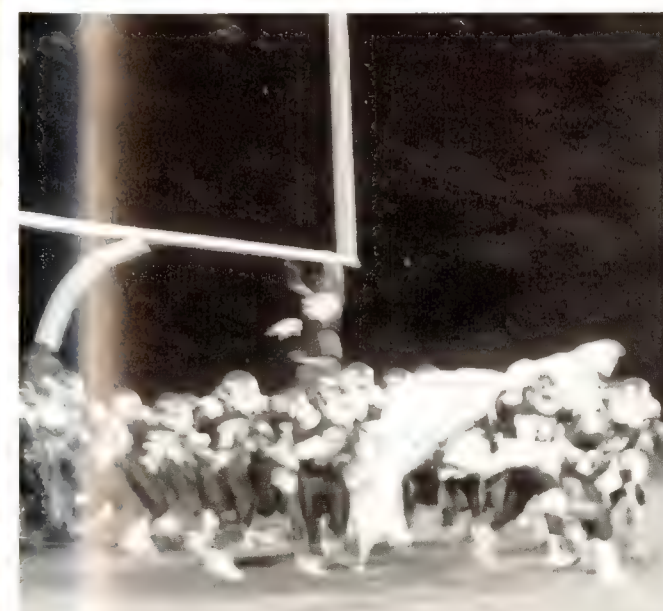

Although the Bulldogs practiced hard and exerted a great deal of effort, they could not pull out a win. Ederick Coleman celebrates making a TD!

Jeff White (right) throws for a first down. The Defense works hard at keeping their opponents from scoring as the Dawgs cause a pile.

The Vancleave students kept their spirits high in support of the football team until the end of the season. The Student Council displays a Spirit Banner. Michael Henry punts.

P.J. Moore and Michael Ruehs, along with Joseph Batson and Joseph Thrasher wait on the sidelines for their turn to get into the ballgame. The Dawgs did execute some fine plays, such as the tackle these team members just completed.

Hues of Blue & White

Hunter Henley and his teammates discuss the next play. Raina Robinson and the manager enjoy being a part of the game.

VMS falls back for the loss. VMS Cheerleaders get the crowd "Fired Up." VMS lines up to make the big play.

VMS Homecoming Unfolds

Blue & White streamers ready the VMS halls for Homecoming.

Angela Walsh, last year's Queen, waits with Homecoming coordinator, Mrs. Thigpen, to crown the new VMS Queen.

Mr. Joe Hubal, the VMS Principal, gets ready to present this year's Queen with a bouquet of red roses.

Lindsay Mallette and Cyndi Mallette line up with their dads, who are proud to be escorting their daughters onto the football field.

Cheerleaders Cherie Davis and Raina Robinson give Julia McKinney, Mandy Clancy, and Christi Davis a pep talk before they walk out on the field.

A Shade that will Stay in the Mind Forever

Seniors stand to receive their diplomas. Historian Trisha Wages presents her loved ones with roses. Scott Taylor shows off his honors tassel to fellow classmates Michael Cunningham and Stephen Tanner. Lora Wise is 1993 Salutatorian. KelLea Gardner, Christine Holden, Tammy Staten, and Angel Akins pose for a group picture.

Graduation was held June 3, 1993, in the gymnasium at the Jackson County campus of the Gulf Coast Community College in Gautier.

A Final look at the Senior Class of 1993.

Latasha Wright is the 1993 Valedictorian of VHS.

Jackie Flurry, Jerry Wilson, and Mr. Breland await the big event, while Angel Akins and Leighann Taylor make final adjustments to their caps and gowns. Leighann is wearing the National Honor Society patch on her sash.

Handing out programs, future seniors Hollie Henley and Marsha Harwell are counting the days until their graduation.

VHS Band members perform at graduation.

Rhonda Hill, Todd Gallagher, and Chris Vuyovich are excited to be graduating. VHS Band plays "Pomp and Circumstance".

Almost Paradise

The 1993 VHS Junior-Senior Prom was held on May 1, 1993, at the Ocean Springs Civic Center. The theme Almost Paradise set the mood for the evening. Erinn Carty painted the tropical island mural. The D.J. played a variety of music that appealed to everyone. The prom lasted from 8:00 to 12:00 midnight. Line dancing was popular for students as well as teachers.

The Junior class chose hurricane glasses as their gift to the Seniors. Everyone received a memory book. The Junior class sponsored the prom. They had a car wash, sold carnations, and had a candy sale to raise money. The Vo-Tech designed, cut, and assembled the trees. Several Vancleave businesses donated materials. The prom was a great success.

The royal pair, prom king Alan Maddox and queen Trisha Wages, dance the night away.

Julie King and Jackie Sicotte were on hand to serve the punch.

Brad Emerson and Samantha Cochran discuss matters in the shade of the trees. Junior class president April Buchanan and her date Shannon Besse agree that prom was a great success.

The World Is An Open Book at Vancleave Public Library

12604 Highway 57 • Vancleave, Mississippi 39565 • 826-5857

We have a world of books—fiction books, non-fiction books, easy books, picture books, large print books, history books, books of every color, stripe and shape. But we have much more.

With your library card (original issued free), you can also check out: framed art prints, audio cassettes, videotapes, slide and 16 mm projectors, Polaroid cameras, and computer software.

Thanks to our on-line public access catalog, a computerized listing, updated daily, you can borrow on intra-library loan any of the nearly 200,000 items in our Jackson-George Regional Library system.

We also have access to MicroCat, a microfilm listing of the more than one million holdings in all of Mississippi's public and special collection libraries. These items are available to our patrons through our free interlibrary loan program.

This facility is proudly supported by the Jackson County Board of Supervisors.

We also have plenty of answers. We have reference collections, access to computerized national data bases, microfiche copies of complete phone books for every major city in the United States, and local and national newspapers on microfilm and microfiche.

And if that isn't enough, we have telefax machines available for public use, paperback book swap shelves, copy machines, Dial-A-Story for children (769-3071), access to talking books, records and machines for handicapped persons, library service to the homebound, and car seat leasing.

Other services include use of our meeting room and a personal computer for public use, and special programs like summer reading for children.

We make every effort to meet your information and communication needs.

Library Hours

Monday and Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Tuesday and Thursday, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Friday, Saturday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

A Carousel of Beauty

The 21st annual Who's Who Pageant was held Feb. 24. There were 70 contestants, and an audience of about 500.

Three Senior Beauties are Missy Todd, Gwen Thrash, and Laurie Levantino.

Tonya Fitzgerald, the MC for the pageant, sings "Washed in Blood." A 1992 graduate of VHS, she is a sophomore majoring in education at USM.

Artistic Shades

Wesley Young paints with vivid colors while Ms. King explains a technique of shading to the rest of the class.

Carey Washington and Rebekah Wise display the artwork that they entered in the Scholastic Art Contest.

Chad Dees works diligently while Ryan Robinson and Arlin Mallette watch. Keith Williams uncovers a hidden talent.

A Tower Above the Rest

Mrs. Delores Sumrall retires after 34 1/2 years in education, from her position as Ass't. Superintendent of Vancleave Attendance Center. The rocking chair is a gift from Vancleave schools. She received her B.S. in Elem. Ed. from USM, her master's from William Carey, and her certification in Admin. & Supv. from the State Dept. Mrs. Sumrall substituted for 8 years, then taught for 26 1/2 years, with 13 of those being in administration. She coached basketball at St. Martin for 6 years and coached track. While Mrs. Sumrall enjoys rocking, for now she is busy travelling and remains active in education as the Chair of the MS GCCC Board of Trustees and is State Chairman for the MS ACCT. Although enjoying her retirement, she misses the people she worked with and all those who so warmly welcomed her to Vancleave. Delores Sumrall will always be remembered as a tower above the rest in education.

RoxAnn Rankin gets State Office

RoxAnn Rankin won the election for vice-president of the 4th district at the 1994 DECA Convention. Her term of office will be the 1994-95 school year. The elections were held at the DECA State Career Development Conference held in Jackson on February 24-26.

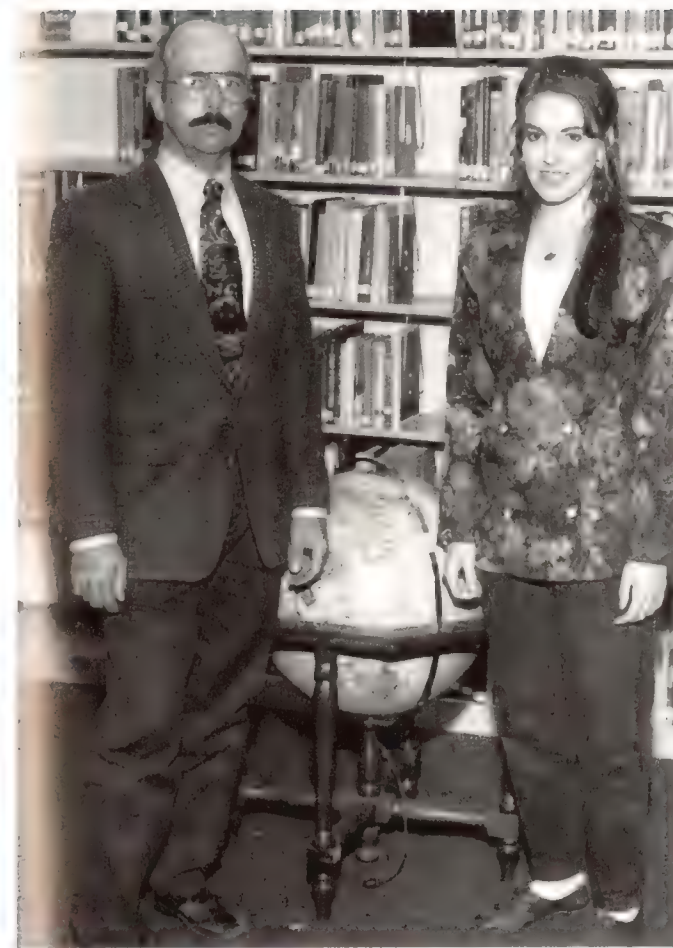

Artists Win Awards

James Rice, Bonham Tillman, Wesley Young, Carey Washington, and Rebekah Wise all participated in the Scholastic Art Contest. Rebekah, Bonham, and James received certificates of merit. Carey received a gold key, and Wesley a silver key. Rebekah was the portfolio winner.

A Finalist
Angela Tillman is a National Merit Finalist.

Star Student and Star Teacher

Rebekah Elizabeth Wise is the Star Student for the 1993-94 school year. She was selected on the basis of having made a score of 29 on her ACT. Rebekah has chosen Mike Shows as the Star Teacher.

Coach Shows's total teaching career spans 22 years, including the six years he has taught at Vancleave. Shows has a bachelor's degree and a master's degree in history from USM.

Con's Cadillac

Con Wyatt won many awards for his livestock at the Jackson Co. Fair in Oct. 1993. Con's Limosin bull, Cadillac, won Grand Champion. Other awards for Con's cattle were Champion Limosin Bull (Cazadoo), Champion Limosin Heifer (Sugar), and a Blue Ribbon (June Bug). He also received Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion for his hogs and blue ribbons for his turkeys.

Student Pages

Hollie Henley and Raina Rushing served as pages in the state capitol to Rep. John Read (left). They also had an opportunity to meet Speaker of the House, Tim Ford (right) during their week of working in Jackson.

Junior Miss

After winning the Jackson County Pageant, Marsha Harwell went on to place as second runner-up in the state Junior Miss Pageant. Marsha received a $1200 scholarship for the local pageant, and a $2000 scholarship in the state pageant.

Silly Shades

Tim Tench shows how he feels about grammar.
Bobby McLemore is glad it's Friday.
Andrew Lott tries to "out do" Ted Branham.
Coach Parham speaks softly and carries a big stick.

Jeri Tolbert, Amanda, and Lynn Green act silly at lunch.
Mrs. Tanner's class is really into learning math.
Luke Seymour and Joseph Coleman cut up.
Jason Payne flips over literature.

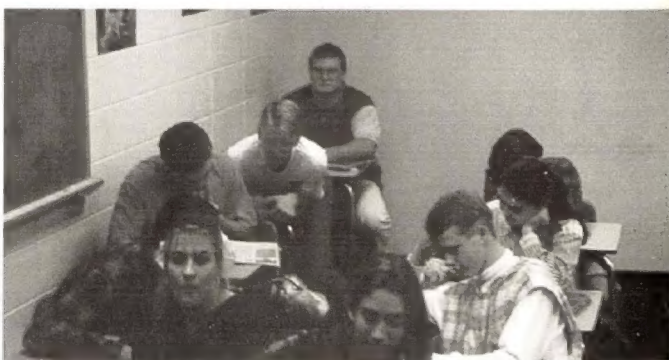

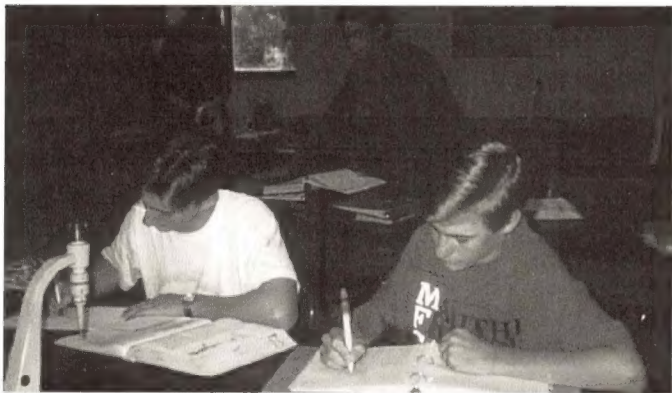

Josh Foreman is up for another tough day.
Ernestine Burney and friends say, "Whoomp! There it is!"
Matt Noblitt and his headless friend, Chris Fortenberry, head for the game.
Tilly Cochran doesn't seem to be amused by the silly joke.

Kendra Whittle and Edward Burney decorate their friends.
Stephanie Ealy would rather not be photographed on a bad hair day.
Tressie Waltman is finally all smiles after the cameraman does a dozen things to try to make her laugh.

The Rest . . .

is history

Joanie Russell and Sheree King read magazines in the library. Johnse LaBatard clears tables at Montana's for a Junior fundraiser. Luke Roberts, Kristen Kapiotis, and Dallas Collier learn more about business in Co-Op. Kristina Thrasher eats from the pizza line today. Chasity English and Mandy Waltman have a little chat during lunch.

(Above) Laura Kenney, Selena Brown, Lael English, Stephanie Roberts, and Darius Taylor have stopped eating, but they stay in the cafeteria to visit with their friends.

(Right) PJ Moore, Keith Ham-sley, and Petey Overstreet "Vanleave's Scholars" are being extremely attentive in Coach Parham's class.

Ann Wilson, Kristi Hipp, and Nicole Couevas plan what they will order for lunch from the French restaurant La Maison des Delices in Ocean Springs.
Eric Heard and friends hang out by the gym.
Lunchtime is when these girls have the most fun.
Shana Stone does her homework in the middle school library.

Shades of Work

Chad Thomas is just plain "Proud to be an American."

Dallas Collier isn't playing with Tonka trucks anymore.

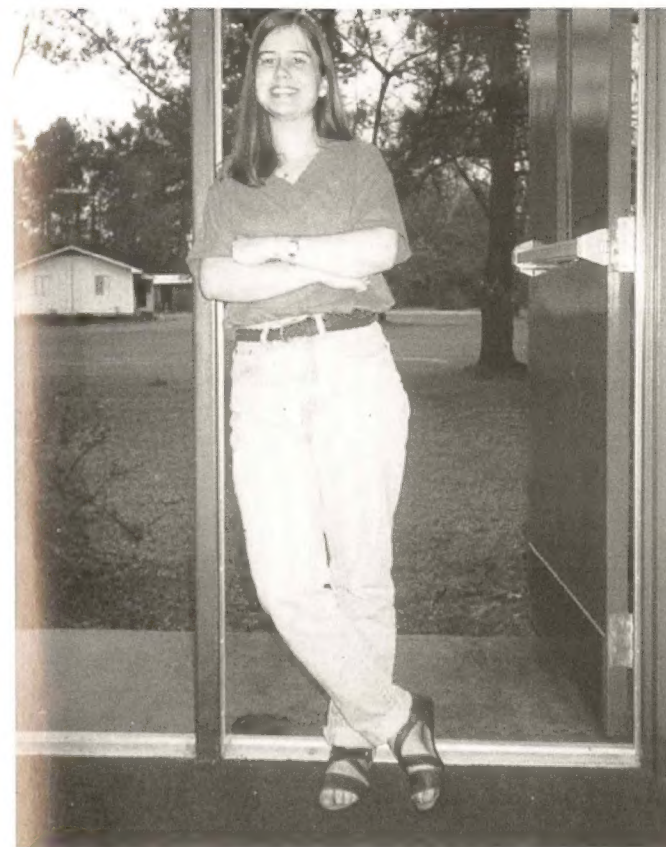

Luke Roberts thinks this job is "for the birds."

Wayne Holder works at VHS in the afternoons. One of his jobs is to stack chairs in the cafeteria.

Lesley Busby is the "bearer" of good news when she goes to tell students that someone has sent them flowers. They can pick up the flowers after school in the office.

Shades of Good-bye

This year has been very interesting, partly because of the many changes in Vancleave, such as the increase in population, new teachers, new students, and new administration. We as an annual staff have worked very hard to incorporate all of this into the 1994 Time 'N' Tide. Having been on the Vancleave High School annual staff since my 9th grade year, I have learned many things from my predecessors; and I am very thankful to them for that. As always, the staff was great this year. We had all kinds of fundraisers including the Beauty and Beau Pageant, boopops, the football games concession stand, Kiss a Senior Good-bye, and our newest fundraiser — the fruit sale. Throughout all of the fundraisers and all of the work on the annual, the staff worked diligently and finished the job. Mrs. Stietenroth is truly an admirable woman. She helps form the new staff at the beginning of the summer and continuously works to the end to help us complete the yearbook. Mrs. Coy Ann is always there to lend us a helping hand whenever we need it, and the annual staff parents also continue to give us immeasurable help. Last but certainly not least, thanks goes to you who bought this annual. I hope that we have captured some memories which you will treasure above the rest.

Shades of Love

Vancleave High School students have a wide variety of pets not found in most schools.

Many of the students participate in extra-curricular activities that involve their animals.

Amanda Howard and her horse Laya enjoy the beautiful weather. Raina Rushing and her horse Pyes "cheese" for the camera. They compete in many local and state rodeos. Baby, Mary Ladnier's pet chicken, has the "run of the roost."

A Shade of Remembrance

Only one week after the 1992-93 school year had ended, we met for the first time as this year's annual staff. Brainstorming for ideas for a theme was the first decision to be made. Surprisingly, we came up with an idea for the theme in that very first meeting. At annual staff camp we developed our cover design and created layouts and headlines to go along with our theme. Throughout the rest of the summer, we spent many hours selling ads. Even though we worked hard, we still had many fun times together. We learned valuable skills in various areas that will be beneficial to us in the end.

I would like to thank the annual staff for sacrificing much of their time. It seems like everyone had an extremely busy schedule this year, and I appreciate the time and effort they put into their sections. Under the guidance of Mrs. Stietenroth, we have been able to accomplish many great things. Not until you've worked along with her, do you realize that she is the backbone of the annual. I consider it a great privilege to have served as editor with her as my advisor. Mrs. Coy Ann has been at every football game and pageant for as long as I can remember. She is a great help to all of us. Next, I would like to thank Ms. Joyce King. Her talents never cease to amaze me! The art classes, under her guidance, have helped immensely. The last set of thank yous goes to my mom and dad, Hunter, and Maxcie. They participated in every annual staff function we had. These people are a great inspiration to me. So to all the people mentioned above, I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Feeling that everything is worth remembering, I hope that in this annual we have captured some of the highlights of your year. Thank you for purchasing this annual and for making our school A Shade Above the Rest.

Colophon

Four hundred copies of the 1994 Time-n-Tide were printed by the Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas. The approximate cost of publishing was $20,000.

This 8 1/2 X 11 book contains 176 pages on 80 lb. enamel paper. Twenty-four pages of the book are printed in four-color.

The cover is blue vellum 044 base with splash foil. Endsheets are parchment.

We would like to thank everyone who participated in the production of the annual as well as the financial supporters in the community.
